1. Presentación de un video que contenga un programa de cocina donde se preparan alimentos. Debe darse una introducción, presentación de ingredientes e instrucciones y finalmente alguna expresión de cierre. En el blog de clase aparece un ejemplo visto y analizado. El trabajo se debe subir a YouTube y enviar el link al correo de la profesora.

   Fecha límite: Septiembre 25 y 26 según horario de clase
   Valoración: 60% de la nota total

2. Presentación de un taller relacionado con la temática de Comer en Restaurantes y Voz Pasiva. El material estará disponible en el blog y en la fotocopiadora a partir del 28 de septiembre.

   Fecha límite: Octubre 2
   Valoración: 40% de la nota total

Es importante aclarar que debido a la presentación del trabajo práctico, no se hará evaluación.

JUDITH MARTINEZ
GRAMMAR

1. Complete the second sentence so that it has the same meaning as the first.

0. No one told us what to cook.
   We __weren’t told what to cook________.

1. They grow these vegetables organically.
   These vegetables __________________________.

2. They are going to hold the party at a restaurant.
   The party __________________________.

3. People on a diet shouldn’t eat these meals.
   These meals __________________________.

4. We had to wait while they cooked the chips.
   We had to wait while the chips __________________________.

5. No one has washed this fruit.
   This fruit __________________________.

COMMUNICATION

Match the beginnings (0–7) to the correct endings (a–h).

0. How would c take your coat?
6. Would you _____ b some water, please?
7. Could you bring _____ c you like your steak?
8. I’d _____ d ready to order?
9. Are you _____ e for two, please.
10. I’m afraid _____ f mind waiting while your table is prepared?
11. Can I _____ g we’re out of fish.
12. A table _____ h like the vegetable soup, please.

READING

13. CANTEEN is a great place to come for good, simple meals. The food is cheap and there are pencils and pictures to colour for younger customers who might get bored while they wait to be served.

14. CLOS MAGGIORE is full of flowers and has a glass roof and a real fire in the winter. It’s hard to believe you’re in the centre of London. The ‘tasting’ menu lets you try lots of different dishes if you can’t decide what to eat.
The food at PARADISE is prepared by a celebrity chef. It’s a fun place with music or comedy most evenings, but companies or celebrities can reserve private dining spaces. Evenings only.

COTTONS is a noisy but fun West Indian bar and restaurant a few kilometres north of the centre of London. There are lots of spicy dishes and you can listen to music on Fridays and weekends.

DININGS is the place to go for good, cheap Japanese food. It’s a long way from the centre of the city, but it’s cheap. The dining area is dark and you may have to share a table with strangers.

THE GUN is a traditional English pub which is over 250 years old. The food is traditional English. Sit outside and watch the boats on the river, with Tower Bridge behind them. Over 18s only.

STEF’S is an Italian restaurant in the centre of London near to the shops, cinemas and theatres. It’s perfect for couples and it also offers a ‘pre-theatre’ menu from 5–7 p.m. Great pizzas and pastas.

Read the text. Match each person (a–f) with the best restaurant (1–7) for them. There is one extra restaurant.

a  Mark loves food from the Far East, especially China and Japan. He hasn’t got a lot of money and he doesn’t care about decoration or atmosphere._______

b  Margaret is taking her young daughter to London Zoo. She needs to be sure that the restaurant is happy to welcome children._______

c  Natalie is coming to London on a shopping trip. She loves trying new food, but she never knows what to choose._______

d  Emma is coming to London for the day with her nineteen-year-old son. He’s keen on boats and wanted to spend the day by the sea._______

e  Jemima is a well-known actress. She loves good food and she also likes to have a good time. However, she gets annoyed when people look at her while she is eating._______

f  Liam and his mother hate using buses or underground trains. They want to have lunch near the shops. Liam’s mother likes food from Mediterranean countries._______